

As a person on the IN do not call list, I have been happy with the results. Please do not let the Bankers Group use the FCC to replace the Indiana law. I pay for my phone service and resent businesses that feel they can use it.